

PROPORTIONS OF FISH CAUGHT BY LAKE THROUGH DECADES

1860s

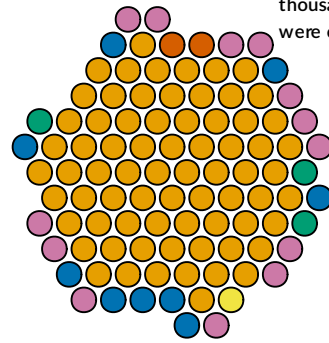

Each circle represents 1% of fish collected.

1870s

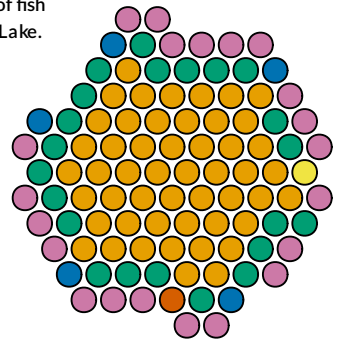

1880s

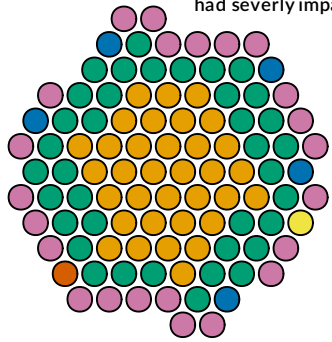

In 1880s, approximately 171,913 thousand pounds (71%) of fish were caught from Herie Lake.

1890s

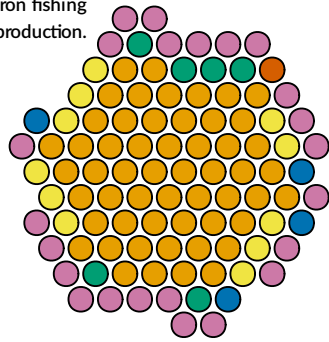

1900s

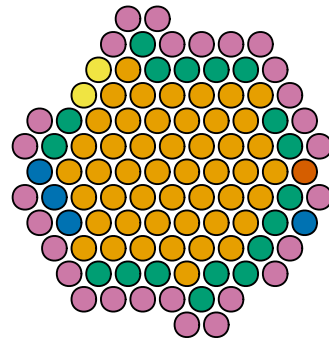

The Great Lakes Storm of 1913 had severely impacted the Lake Huron fishing ecosystem and production.

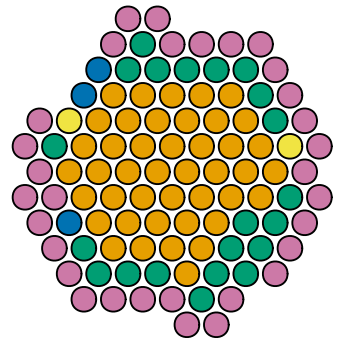

1910s

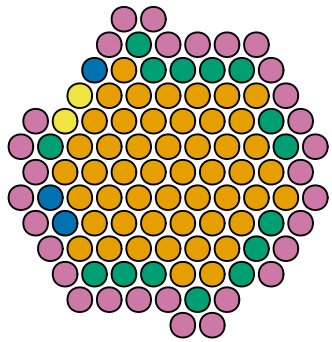

1920s

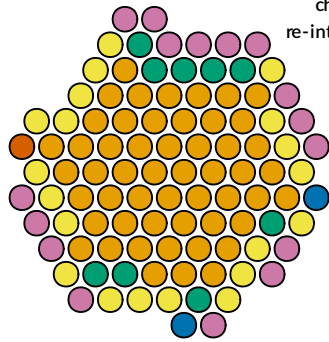

1930s

1940s

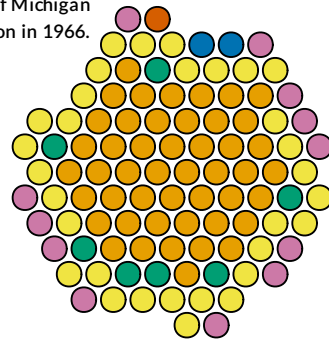

1950s

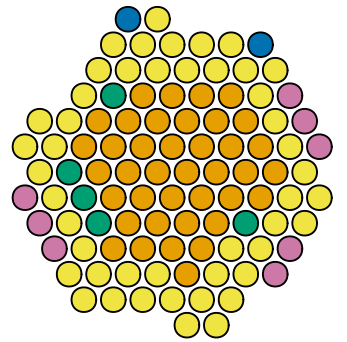

Dr. Howard Tanner, the fisheries chief for the state of Michigan re-introduced the salmon in 1966.

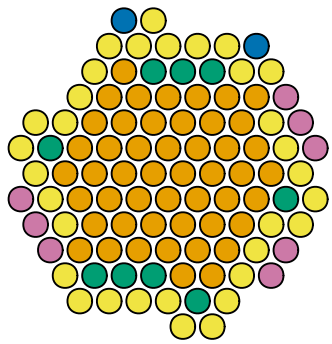

1960s

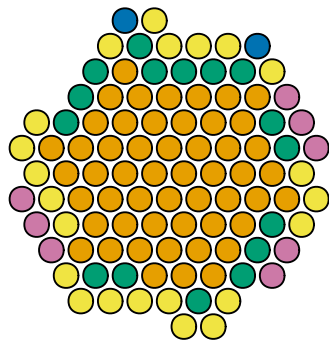

1970s

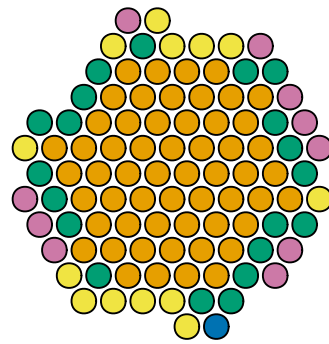

1980s

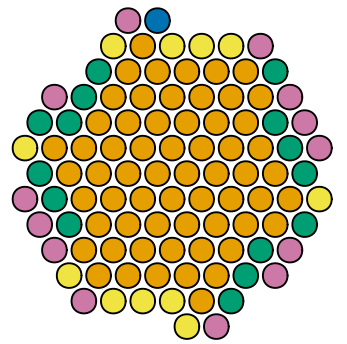

1990s

2000s

2010s

The extinction of Blue Pike, approximately in 1983 impacted Lake Erie fishing industry but relatively little compared to the proportion of fish collected.

Lakes

Erie Huron Michigan Ontario Saint Clair Superior